Outstanding Cultural Program is presented to a campus group that effectively utilized resources in the development of a program that demonstrated a commitment cultural appreciation and sensitivity. The planners of this program utilized an effective promotional strategy that encouraged participation and engagement from the campus community. All registered student organizations in good standing with the Office of Student Involvement are eligible for this award.

Outstanding Campus Program is presented to a student organization that effectively utilized resources in the development and implementation of a campus program. A quality promotional strategy was implemented and there should have been significant attendance and participation from the campus community. All registered student organizations in good standing with the Office of Student Involvement are eligible for this award.

Quiet Influence is presented to an individual who has served as a quiet influence within an organization. This student may not have held an executive office, but made a significant difference through a commitment to the group. All registered students in good standing with the Institute are eligible for this award.

Outstanding Involvement in the Residential Community is presented to a student who has shown outstanding involvement, commitment and perseverance toward the development of community in the residence halls. All registered students in good standing with the Institute are eligible for this award

Outstanding Service to the Residential Community (Student Staff Member of the Year) is presented to a student staff member who has shown outstanding involvement, commitment and perseverance toward the development of community in the residence halls over this course of his or her academic career. All registered student staff members of the Office of Residence Life and Housing are eligible for this award.

Seraphin Bernard Award (Student Leader of the Year) is presented to a campus leader who has demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities through his or her participation and involvement in the campus community. The recipient of this award will have demonstrated innovation, commitment, creativity and a spirit of professionalism. All registered students in good standing with the Institute are eligible for this award, which is presented in memory of Seraphin Bernard.

Tribute to a Graduating Student is presented to a graduating student, who over the course of his or her tenure at Pratt, has earned the respect of the community for high achievement in both academic and co-curricular pursuits and who embodies the ideals of responsible and creative professionalism. Only nominees who have achieved a 3.3 GPA or higher and are in good standing with the institute may be considered for this award. The recipient of this award delivers the student commencement speech in May.

Outstanding Organization Advisor is presented to an advisor that has fostered individual and organizational growth, has served as a positive role model for students and has demonstrated personal commitment to the organization through time and energy. Faculty or staff members who have served as an advisor to a student organization are eligible for this award.

Outstanding Staff Member is presented a Pratt Institute employee whose outstanding contributions, attitude and attention to his or her job goes beyond the expected. The recipient of this award will have shown a high commitment to students and displayed consistent professionalism and excellence. Any staff member (non-faculty) at Pratt is eligible for this award.

Outstanding Student Organization is presented to a student group that has made a meaningful contribution to Pratt and demonstrated outstanding leadership within the campus community. This student group demonstrated consistent flexibility, initiative, creativity, and perseverance. Their events have had a significant impact on the quality of campus life at Pratt. All registered student organizations in good standing with the Office of Student Involvement are eligible for this award.