

Connections Class Application

Connections is an opportunity for students to learn about themselves, meet other like-minded students and get involved at Pratt. Connections is interactive, educational and fun. The five-week, not for credit class addresses: communication skills, organizational skills, identity and diversity awareness, decision-making and problem solving.

Students must attend the Connections class to apply for leadership positions including: RA, Orientation Leader, SGA, Program Board, C-Board, Peer Advisors, IGC Executive Board, Greek Chapter Presidents, Pratt House, Pre-College, or Career Peer-to-Peer Counselor.
