Digital Data Analytics and Visualization Fellowship

at the Metropolitan Museum of Art

FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION 2023-2024

Fellowship Information

The Metropolitan Museum of Art Digital Data Analysis & Visualization fellowship will provide an opportunity to apply and expand the fellow's knowledge and skills from their coursework in a world class institution.

Tasks and responsibilities for the 2023-2024 fellow may include (but are not limited to):

- Providing metrics on The Met's digital space (collection, public API, visitor & onsite experience, digital content, programs etc) through Google Analytics, SQL, and other relevant tools.
- Creating cohesive, data driven stories on how the Met's digital data connects with other data sets across the museum through dashboards and presentations through tools such as Looker, PowerBI, Google Slides, or Power Point.
- Learning how to create workflows and collaborate with project management tools (JIRA, Confluence, Airtable, etc)
- Presenting an impactful fellowship capstone project on an existing or potential area in The Met's digital space that is of interest to the fellow and data and analytics team.
- Interacting with Met staff and learning museum best practices, culture, and vision.

The fellowship recipient will commit to a hybrid work environment (in-person and online) at the museum for 8 hours/week (120 hours/semester for the fall 2023 and spring 2024 semesters; 30 weeks total from September 2023-May 2024). This fellowship includes a scholarship in the amount of $7,450 that will be divided equally between the fall 2023 and spring 2024 semesters. The fellow must be a current student in the MS Data Analytics and Visualization program. In spring 2024, the fellow may take either Practicum/Seminar or present their fellowship project at #infoshow2024 at the end of the semester. The successful applicant must take at least 6 credits in both the fall 2023 and spring 2024 semesters.

Please note that continuing the fellowship through spring 2024 is contingent upon review of the fall 2023 semester by Metropolitan Museum staff. The fellowship recipient will be selected by Metropolitan Museum staff following an initial review by Pratt-SI staff. Official notification will be made in late April 2023.

Please contact the SI Office with questions about the fellowship and/or application process.
