- If you have completed a full time course of study or have completed one year of optional post completion of studies practical training you have a grace period of sixty (60) days to remain in the USA in legal F1 status.
- If your plan is to transfer to another university/school you must be admitted to a new program within this sixty (60) day grace period and begin the program of study within five (5) months in order to maintain your legal status in the USA.
- Students who are taking a leave of absence or who are withdrawing from Pratt have fifteen (15) days from the date you process the leave/withdrawal to leave the USA. Students who do not get permission from the OIA prior to taking a leave/withdrawal are considered out of status by the Department of Homeland Security.
