

Department of Art and Design Education

Child Protection Policy

Overview: The Department of Art and Design Education (ADE) laboratory school, Saturday Art School (SAS), takes place in the fall and spring semesters on the Brooklyn campus and each semester typically involves between 10-25 student teachers, 2-5 faculty, and 2-5 work-study students or staff hired by the department. In an academic year approx 400 children ages 6-18 years old attend ADE SAS classes that take place in studios and classrooms across the campus.

Saturday Art School is registered annually with Pratt Institute Campus Safety by the Center K-12 .

Child Protection Policy: This is the Child Protection Policy for the Department of Art and Design Education's laboratory school, Saturday Art School.

Definitions:

"student-teacher" - an UG or G "matriculated student" taking the class ADE 405/406/621/621b Saturday Art School for credit as part of their degree program or minor in a class taught by faculty.

"minors" - children between the ages of 6-18 years old.

This document was prepared by the Department of Art and Design Education specifically for their program needs. Do not use any part of this document without the permission of the department. For permission, email awilson2@pratt.edu.

A. Measures to prevent abuse of minors:

1. All persons must make all reasonable efforts to remove minors from dangerous or potentially dangerous situations, irrespective of any other limitation or requirement.
2. Authorized adults (faculty, matriculated students, staff, graduate assistants and work study students) participating in programs and activities covered by this policy must not:
 - Be alone with a minor: when feasible, there should be two or more authorized adults present during activities when minors are present.
 - Engage in abusive conduct of any kind toward, or in the presence of, a minor.
 - Strike, hit, administer corporal punishment to, or touch in an inappropriate or illegal manner any minor.
 - Pick up minors from or drop off minors at any location except as specifically instructed to by Saturday Art School staff who have been authorized in advance and in writing by the minor's parent or legal guardian.
 - Provide prescription drugs, alcohol or illegal drugs to any minor.
 - Expose minors to sexually explicit materials, such as pornography.
 - Have any type of dating relationship between authorized adult and a program participant.
5. This policy recognizes the continued and evolving reliance on emerging technologies (such as: email, text messaging, social media, etc.) and the interaction between those mediums and programs such as Saturday Art School. This policy also provides the following limitations as it relates to electronic communications with minors.

- Communication directly between minors and authorized adults is prohibited except under time-sensitive emergency situations and when prior approval is granted (for example: cancellation of a scheduled event).
- If there is a legitimate reason for communication to occur, contact should be only by Pratt email and must involve a third party (for example a second authorized adult or the minor's parent/guardian) as part of the conversation, when/if, electronic communications are occurring with minors.
- Private electronic communication between authorized adults and minors, including the use of personal social networking websites like – Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snapchat, instant messaging, texting, etc. – is prohibited. Authorized adults should not “friend,” “follow,” etc. minors on social networking sites, communicate via internet chat rooms, send personal emails or text messages, or share personal or intimate information with minors.

6. All authorized adults participating in a program covered by this policy are required to read the Student Teaching in Saturday Art School Handbook and ADE Saturday Art School Emergency Operational Plan and to acknowledge in writing that they have understood the requirements on protecting participants from abusive emotional and physical treatment, and on appropriate or required reporting of incidents of improper conduct.

7. In the event of an allegation of “ inappropriate conduct is/has been made against a “matriculated student, ADE faculty member or staff, the individual shall be restricted from any further participation in the program until such allegation has been satisfactorily resolved through investigation by appropriate Institute personnel. It is the responsibility of the Chair of Art and Design Education to immediately report all allegations to Campus Safety. The Chair of Art and Design Education shall not investigate any reported allegations and shall take reasonable steps to ensure evidence is preserved until the arrival of Campus Safety officials.

Pratt Institute employees who violate this policy may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination from employment.

B. Measures to maintain adequate supervision of minors:

1. Whenever feasible, all activities involving minors should be supervised by at least two or more authorized adults or by the minor's parent(s) or legal guardian(s) at all times. Some of the factors to consider in determining "adequate supervision" are the number and age of participants; the activity(ies) involved.

2. The program, event or activity host shall adopt a parent/guardian permission slip or consent form that includes the following:

- Information about the youth participant and activity;
- Parental permission and release of liability;
- Medical emergency authorization and health information;
- Designated person(s) authorized to pick up the participant at the conclusion of the program;
- Youth program code of conduct; and
- Media policy and photo release authorization.

Center K-12 establishes and operationalizes the items below for the children registered for the ADE laboratory school, Saturday Art School:

- Information about the youth participant and activity;
- Parental permission and release of liability;
- Medical emergency authorization and health information;
- Designated person(s) authorized to pick up the participant at the conclusion of the program;
- Youth program code of conduct; and
- Media policy and photo release authorization.

3. Students who are at least 18-years-old and are participating in the program as either employees or volunteers are considered authorized adults and may supervise minor participants, subject to the same background checks, reporting obligations, and minimum standard of conduct provided herein.

C. Measures to Address Medical and Emergency Situations Involving Minors:

1. Authorization of and Access to Emergency Medical Services

- An authorization for medical treatment, release of medical information (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)), emergency treatment and general medical liability waiver form must be completed by the parent or guardian of each participant.

Center K-12 solicits the authorization for medical treatment, release of medical information (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)), emergency treatment and general medical liability waiver form completed by the parent or guardian of each participant.

- Matriculated students must immediately notify faculty of a medical emergency. In case of emergency, faculty will call 9-1-1. The faculty will also notify the Center K-12 office and public safety.
- Programs must arrange for access to emergency medical services at all locations. Medical care appropriate for the nature of the events, expected attendance and other variables should be taken into consideration. Consultation may be obtained from Campus Safety, Risk Management, or Health Services. In case of emergency, individuals must call 9-1-1.

Center K-12 arranges for access to emergency medical services (as required).

2. Notification of parents in an emergency

Programs must maintain safeguards and precautions appropriate for the youth in their care and must have a plan in place in the event of a natural disaster, active threat, or other emergency. Program will have a written plan that is approved by Campus Safety.

Refer to: ADE Saturday Art School Emergency Operational Plan

Programs should establish a procedure for the notification of the minor's parent/legal guardian in case of an emergency, including medical or behavioral problems, natural disasters, active threat, or other significant program disruptions.

The Center K-12 establishes the procedure for communication with the minor's parent/legal guardian including the notification of the minor's parent/legal guardian in case of an emergency, including medical or behavioral problems, natural disasters, active threat, or other significant program disruptions. Faculty in the Department of Art and Design Education communicate/supervise communication with parents/guardians on children's learning.